Foreign Ownership of U.S. Agricultural Land Through December 31, 1984: County-Level Data

T. Alexander Majchrowicz

J. Peter DeBraal

INTRODUCTION

The Agricultural Foreign Investment Disclosure Act of 1978 (AFIDA)1/ requires foreign owners of U.S. agricultural land to report information about such ownership to the Secretary of Agriculture. The act also requires that the Secretary transmit an annual report on foreign ownership of U.S. agricultural land, including an analysis of the information reported by foreign owners, to the President and the Congress. The county-level data presented in this report supplement the information contained in the annual report for the year ending December 31, 1984.2/ Because of changes in the reporting requirements, which became effective October 9, 1984, the data analysis and tables in this report reflect information received through October 8, 1984. The changes in the reporting requirements are presented in the annual report.

"Agricultural land" is defined in the act as all land used for agricultural, forestry, or timber production purposes. The regulations3/ further refine this definition by including idle land if its last use within the past 5 years was for agricultural, forestry, or timber production purposes. The regulations exempt all land that is held in parcels of 1 acre or less (in the aggregate) from which agricultural, forestry, or timber products are less than $1,000 in annual gross sales, and where such products are for the use of the person holding an interest in the land.

AFIDA requires reporting any interest in the land other than a security interest (a mortgage or other debt-securing instrument). The regulations exempt leaseholds of less than 10-years' duration, contingent future interests, and those noncontingent future interests that do not become possessory upon termination of the present estate. In addition, nonagricultural easements and rights-of-way are exempt. In an interpretation issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, an interest solely in mineral rights is also exempt.

A "foreign person" as defined in the act includes any individual who (1) is not a U.S. citizen or national, (2) is not a citizen of the Northern Mariana Islands or the Trust Territories of the Pacific Islands, or (3) is not lawfully admitted into the United States for permanent residence. Any person who holds an Immigration and Naturalization Service Form I-151, I-155, or I-551 (green card) is considered lawfully admitted for permanent residence and is exempt from the requirements of the act. Foreign governments, entities which are created under the laws of or have their principal place of business in a foreign country, and U.S. entities in which there is a 5 percent or more foreign interest are also defined as foreign persons.

A "parcel" is all land held by one owner in the same manner (type of interest), located in one county, and acquired at the same time. Lands do not have to be adjacent to be considered part of one parcel.

The data in the following tables are presented by State and county. Only those States and counties in which there is foreign investment in agricultural land are listed. Table 1 displays the number of parcels and acres and the value of the foreign-held land at the time of acquisition. Table 2 presents acreage data for the five foreign countries of origin which account for the most foreign ownership of U.S. agricultural land and a sixth category for all other countries. The foreign-country data are totaled under each country name for all types of foreign investors from that country. Table 3 furnishes acreage data by use categories.
